e. During the reporting period, a representative of the Information Systems Security Group participated in the Systems Design Review of Project SAFE. During that same period meetings were held with TRW, the prime contractor, and with NSA and DIA. (U)

f. During the reporting period, the Office of Public Affairs advised the External Activities Branch that the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence (SSCI) is conducting a survey covering individuals who are or were associated with the Agency and have written books that relate to the association or concern intelligence. The SSCI obtained a list of said authors from the Library of Congress and has inquired as to whether they had signed secrecy agreements and had submitted their books for review prior to publication. (U)

g. Activities of the Security Education Group (SEG) during the reporting period featured presentation of the first tailored security update offered to DDS&T/OSO, and similar presentations provided to several elements within NFAC, to include the executive and secretarial personnel of Administrative and Policy Staffs of the Center and other staff members of the National Intelligence Council. SEG also succeeded in efforts to gain representation in the Orientation for New Employees Course. (U)
